

An illustration of two birds, possibly terns, sitting in a nest made of twigs and leaves. The nest is suspended by a chain. The background is a soft, painterly style with green and blue foliage.

The Agnes Kimball Children's Fund

Agnes Waterhouse Kimball

“We smile and hope you will smile as you read”

A generous gift from the Margolis, Parker, and Gerson families has allowed the Friends of the Conway Public Library to establish an investment fund in memory of Agnes Kimball. Agnes filled her life with children, both her own, Jeannette and Roger, and the many neighborhood children as well. Her house and heart were open to them all. To honor Agnes and her passion for children, this fund supplements funds set aside for children's books and audiobooks.
