January 2025 - Library Visits

On February 2nd, the Conway Public Library hosted dozens of OMer for our second annual New Hampshire Odyssey of the Mind Spontaneous Training Day. Teams joined together to share in the creative spirit as they learned to solve verbal, hands-on, and giant hands-on problems.

Sherri has worked to partner with over 50 other New England libraries to offer our patrons access to the Author Hour Series of over a dozen virtual author talks this winter featuring some of the publishing industry's top trending writers.

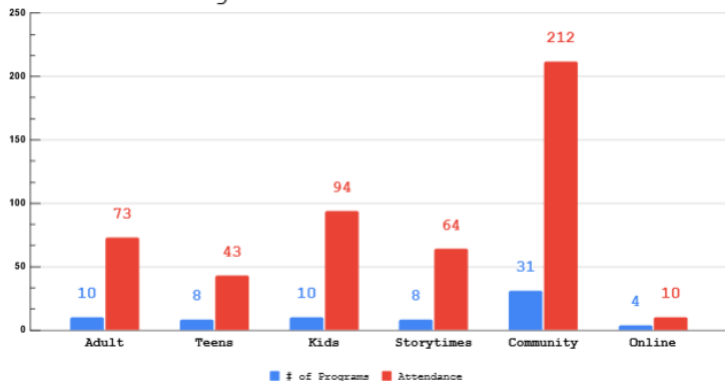

January 2025 - Circulation: 5906 items

Miss Frizzle, Princess Pauline, and Mother Nature will be visiting the Conway Public Library as part of the Once Upon a Story Hour series happening monthly in the Children's Room. This special story time is curriculum-based, with interactive lessons and activities made magical by a historical or literary costumed character.

January 2025 Programs
67 Programs with 486 attendees

Drea and Tessa have been entertaining our teens this winter on Fridays afterschool with Teen Giant Games. So far they have created and played giant versions of Connect Four, Sorry, and Pick-up Sticks.

Almost two dozen families came out on a Saturday morning to enjoy musical guest Steve Blunt at Take Your Child to the Library Day this year.

Respectfully submitted,

Jefferson M. Beavers, Library Director
